

Information & Resources for Cancer Patients and the Community

Text and images on this handout are hyperlinked to online resources ↗

Stanford Cancer Institute (SCI) offers compassionate care and leading-edge research conducted by our world class physicians for numerous cancers. A National Cancer Institute designated Comprehensive Cancer Center, SCI investigates new diagnostic, prevention and treatment strategies through its more than 250 clinical trials.

Stanford Health Care

Stanford Cancer Center clinic locations

Stanford Health Resource Hub OPEN TO PUBLIC

Stanford Adolescent and Young Adult Cancer Program

Stanford Health Care classes & events OPEN TO PUBLIC

Health insurance plans accepted at Stanford Health Care

Stanford Health Library OPEN TO PUBLIC

Stanford Medicine Online Second Opinion Program

Stanford Caregiving Center OPEN TO PUBLIC

Stanford Health Care COVID-19 Resource Center

Stanford Cancer Supportive Care Program OPEN TO PUBLIC

Stanford Cancer Institute

Cancer Clinical Trial Search mobile app FREE

Google Play | Apple

Online search engine for Stanford cancer clinical trials

Frequently Asked Questions about cancer trials at Stanford

Stanford cancer clinical trial stories

Stanford Cancer Clinical Trials Information Service

For general inquiries about cancer clinical trials at Stanford OPEN TO PUBLIC, REFERRING PHYSICIANS

ccto-office@stanford.edu | 650.498.7061 (then press 2)

cancer.stanford.edu

v02.2021

Text and images on this handout are hyperlinked to online resources ↗

Community Outreach and Engagement Efforts at Stanford Cancer Institute

Community events SUBSCRIBE to EMAIL ALERTS

Community engaged research & projects

Diversity & inclusion in cancer clinical trials

Community SEED (Science Engagement through Education & Dialogue)

Learn and chat about science with our researchers. Check for event updates @ Community Events

Cancer Survivorship at Stanford Cancer Institute

Stanford Cancer Survivorship Program

Stanford Cancer Survivorship Research

Tools for patients & caregivers | Educational resources for professionals

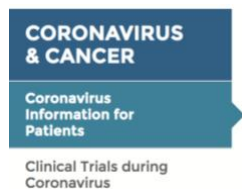

National Cancer Institute (NCI) Cancer Information Service

Information specialists at NCI's Cancer Information Service (CIS) are available to help answer your cancer-related questions whether you are a patient, family member or friend, health care provider, or researcher. Service is available in English and Spanish.

More about the NCI Cancer Information Service

Call 1-800-4-CANCER (1-800-422-6237)

Chat through LiveHelp | Email NCIinfo@nih.gov

Other cancer related organizations

(Partial listing below. The NCI CIS can assist with finding cancer organizations in your local area)

American Cancer Society

American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO)

Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS)

Cancer Legal Resource Center

Disability Rights Legal Center

Patient Advocate Foundation

cancer.stanford.edu